

PRIVACY POLICY

The Turn of the Page (TTOTP) is a collaboration of readers and writers from around the world with a shared interest in literature and literary reviews. This privacy policy will explain how our collaboration uses the personal data we collect from you when you use our website.

What data do we collect?

TTOTP collects the following data:

- Personal identification information (name, email address, phone number, etc. when you sign up for membership.)

How do we collect your data?

You directly provide TTOTP with most of the data we collect. We collect data and process data when you:

- Register online for membership or other services.
- Voluntarily complete a customer survey or comment or provide feedback on any of our comments facilities or via email.
- Use or view our website via your browser's cookies.

TTOTP may also receive your data indirectly from the following sources:

- Links you click through to our affiliate service providers.

How will we use your data?

TTOTP collects your data so that we can:

- Process your requests and manage your account.
- With your permission, email you with our newsletters or contact you via email with any other matters we think you might find of interest.

If you choose to visit our affiliate companies directly from our website, TTOTP will share the minimum required data with those companies so that they may offer you their products and services. Our affiliates are well-known, reputable booksellers with their own robust privacy policies that you are free to check.

How do we store your data?

TTOTP securely stores your data on our provider servers, detailed in our Data and Security document. TTOTP will keep your contact details for as long as you are a member of our site. If you cancel your membership, we will delete your data within 10 working days.

Marketing

As part of our normal website offerings, TTOTP gives you access to information about products and services that we think you might like (our affiliates, e.g., bookshops). We will not deliver unsolicited third-party marketing directly to you. We may occasionally make TTOTP membership-related offers to you.

What are your data protection rights?

TTOTP would like to make sure you are fully aware of all your data protection rights. Every member is entitled to the following:

- The right to access – you have the right to request TTOTP for copies of your personal data. We may charge you a small fee for this service.
- The right to rectification – you have the right to request that TTOTP correct any information you believe is inaccurate. You also have the right to request TTOTP to complete the information you believe is incomplete.
- The right to erasure – you have the right to request that TTOTP erase your personal data, under certain conditions.
- The right to restrict processing – you have the right to request that TTOTP restrict the processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.
- The right to object to processing – you have the right to object to TTOTP's processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.
- The right to data portability – you have the right to request that TTOTP transfer the data that we have collected to another organisation, or directly to you, under certain conditions.

If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at our email: discovery@theturn-----page.com

Or write to us using our contact form available on this website.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behaviour information. When you visit our websites, we may collect information from you automatically through cookies or similar technology. For further information about cookies, visit allaboutcookies.org.

How do we use cookies?

TTOTP uses cookies in a range of ways to improve your experience on our website, including:

- Keeping you signed in
- Understanding how you use our website

What types of cookies do we use?

There are a number of different types of cookies, however, our website uses standard ones:

- Functionality – TTOTP uses these cookies so that we recognise you on our website and remember your previously selected preferences. These could include what language you prefer and location you are in. A mix of first-party and third-party cookies are used.
- Advertising – TTOTP uses these cookies to collect information about your visit to our website, the content you viewed, the links you followed and information about your browser, device, and your IP address. TTOTP will never share this data with third parties for advertising purposes. As part of our carefully chosen and reputable affiliate programme, however, we may share online data collected through cookies with our affiliate partners. This means that if you choose to visit their website, you may be shown suggestions based on your browsing patterns on our website.

How to manage cookies

You can set your browser not to accept cookies, and the website on the previous page tells you how to remove cookies from your browser. However, in a few cases, some of our website features may not function as a result.

Privacy policies of other websites

The TTOTP website contains links to other reputable and trusted websites. Our privacy policy applies only to our website, so if you click on a link to another website, you should read their privacy policy.

Changes to our privacy policy

TTOTP keeps its privacy policy under regular review and places any updates on this web page. This privacy policy was last updated on 07 September 2026.

How to contact us

If you have any questions about TTOTP's privacy policy, the data we hold on you, or you would like to exercise one of your data protection rights, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Email us at: discovery@the-----page.com

Or write to us using the contact form available on this website.

How to contact the appropriate authority

Should you wish to report a complaint or if you feel that TTOTP has not addressed your concern in a satisfactory manner, you may contact an Information Commissioner's Office. There are multiple commissioners throughout the world, but a simple web search "Information Commissioner insert-your-country" will show you your local office.
